Star[®] Partner Builder Support Information

FAQ's

• What if the builder says they signed up for Star-Partner recently or in the past but can't find their Star-Partner number ?

Answer: Be sure the builder has checked their email and spam folder. If they still can't find it, the BBY appliance sales consultant can contact their local Thermador representative.

 Does the Builder business name have to match the "delivered to address"?
 Answer: No, builder company name is only necessary when filling in the prompt after having entered the "Builder" Sku: 5577693.

- What if the builder 1-2-Free sale is not bundling properly and or not applying the discount?
 Answer: Be sure to go through your selections and be sure you have entered a full/valid One-Two-Free package that includes refrigeration. If there is still a bundle issue, please escalate and create a help ticket via Best Buy. Also, communicate with your representative that this is happening. Normally this is an IT issue.
- Can a builder client receive 7% off their One-Two-Free Thermador sale?
 Answer: Absolutely, as long as the client has the builder's full and correct builder Company name and Thermador Star-Partner number.
